

United Wheatgrowers proudly brings you the Wheat Competition 2023

Crops harvested in 2023 are eligible for entries in the following classes:

- Premium Milling Wheat
- Milling Wheat
- Gristing Wheat
- Feed Wheat
- Biscuit Wheat

The Runner Up and Winner of each class will be announced at the Arable Awards of New Zealand gala dinner in Christchurch on the 10th of August. All finalists in these categories will receive one complimentary ticket to the Arable Awards and additional tickets can be purchased. Please visit www.arableawards.co.nz for further information on this great event.

Entry Details:

Name:	Trading Name:
Address:
Email:	Contact phone number:

Nominations for the 2023 Agronomist of Year award are now open, to nominate please go to www.arableawards.co.nz and search award categories.

We look forward to seeing your nominations.

Wheat Category details:

Premium Milling Wheat	Milling Wheat	Gristing Wheat
Feed Wheat	Biscuit Wheat	Variety:
Total tonnes:	Paddock size:	Irrigated: Yes No

Conditions of entry:

All entries must be received by United Wheatgrowers and the New Zealand Grain and Seed Trade Association no later than 2 June 2023 with an accurate complete entry form. One (1) entry per class, per farm. Each entry will be judged on the visual and tested quality for the end use of the product. The judge's decision is final.

Instructions:

Please complete the entry details below and send your completed entry form, with a test result and sample to:

United Wheatgrowers Wheat Awards
Thomas Chin
New Zealand Grain and Seed Trade Association
185 Kirk Road, Templeton, Building no. 6
PO Box 23143, Hornby 8442